

Too Young to Rock and Roll

Bay City Rollers

Too young to rock 'n' roll
Ya shaking it all over town
Too young, too young to rock 'n' roll

Hold on, you just can't wait
You're giving all your love away
You're too young, too young to rock 'n' roll
You give your love away to every boy in town
With every move you make you want to bring them
Down, down, down

Can't wait to give your soul
What would your momma say
Too young, too young to rock 'n' roll
My, my, if she could see, the way you tease and run around

You're too young, too young to rock 'n' roll

Too young to rock, too young to rock 'n' roll
Too young to rock, too young to rock 'n' roll
Too young to rock, too young to rock 'n' roll

Ya shaking it all over town
You know you're too young to rock 'n' roll
Hold on, you just can't wait
Giving all your love away
Ya too young, too young to rock 'n' roll
