

Captive Cows

Bay Faction

That sound that sound
My favorite sound
Why do you switch
To English frowns?
I crumbled like old coffee grounds
When I tried to break into your house

When I smell blood, oh oh
When I smell blood, oh oh
You should go now
Before the wolves come back to pound the Jesus from the ceiling
grout
You should go now
Before the mayor accepts his crown
And runs into the ground

I'll take you out on the town
We'll make curly q's on captive cows
But you fell apart like old coffee grounds
When I brought you back to my house

When I smell blood, oh oh
You should go now
Before the wolves come back to pound the Jesus from the ceiling
grout
You should go now
Before the mayor accepts his crown
And runs into the ground

You should go now
Before the wolves come back to pound the Jesus from the ceiling
grout
You should go now
Before the mayor accepts his crown
And runs into the ground
