Bay Faction

Show my cards and pray for a double
I don't need to touch grass
I need to be shot in the head
Swim deep wait for the subtle sense
Of peace that we all expect at the end
Getting closer

Closer to the edge than I've ever been
Most don't desert it
The closure I been seeking

Cause I can't stay
Giving my self away
Every edge bound to fray
Like edge of my seat
Like ever day, like everything
Is so annoying but sexy if I
Destroy it because I can't stay
Giving my live giving myself away

Holy in the ceiling son are ya winning
Is it really that bad or do you just need to leave bed
Hour seven oh well nothing breaks
Like the shot that's fake but I still said I'm closer

Closer to the edge than I've ever been
Most don't desert it
The closure I been seeking

Cause I can't stay
Giving my self away
Every edge bound to fray
Like edge of my seat
Like ever day, like everything
Is so annoying but sexy if I
Destroy it because I can't stay
Giving my live giving myself away

(Closer to the edge than I've ever been
Most don't desert it
The closure I been seeking)

Cause I can't stay
Giving my self away
Every edge bound to fray
Like edge of my seat
Like ever day, like everything
Is so annoying but sexy if I
Destroy it because I can't stay
Giving my live giving myself...
Like everything
Is so annoying but sexy if I
Destroy it because I can't stay
Giving my live giving myself away
