

"Hey honey, it's Mom, it's about 7 on Tuesday night. Just calling to check in, see if you guys are okay... okay, bye."

'Cause I don't know who you are
But I know where you came from
Shooting down from the stars
Directly into my bedroom
'Cause I don't wanna be alone
Maybe I don't wanna be alone
And tell Jasper that I'm going home
'Cause I don't wanna be alone

I'm getting lost in you
But I like it and it's not what I'm into
I'm getting lost in you
Oh no

So what the fuck were you thinking?
Oh that night, we slept in my bed
Did you have any clue?
That I felt like I'd be better off dead
'Cause honestly I was sinking
At the raid of my own heart
And all the time I was thinking
I fucked in my-but did I get this to start?

'Cause I don't know who you are
But I know where you came from
Shooting down from the stars
Directly into my bedroom
'Cause I don't wanna be alone
Maybe I don't wanna be alone
And tell Jasper that I'm going home
'Cause I don't wanna be alone

I'm getting lost in you
But I like it and it's not what I'm into
I'm getting lost in you
Oh no

I'm getting lost in you
But I like it and it's not what I'm into
I'm getting lost in you
Oh no
