

Float

Bay Ledges

Think I wanna fly away
Like a bird out on the window singing
Looking for yesterday (Yesterday)
But now (But now, but now) I can see the sun
Think I wanna find a way
Like a bird out on the window singing to you

Singing to you
Singing to you
Singing to you

The river flowing down my street
Is leading me to another sunset
Memories go way down deep
Can't tell if you're done with the grief
The words you said a thousand times
I never listen between the lines
Take a look, take a step outside
We'll float so slow
I'll go wherever you go

Think I wanna fly away
Like a bird out on the window singing
Looking for yesterday (Yesterday)
But now (But now, but now) I can see the sun
Think I wanna find a way
Like a bird out on the window singing to you

Singing to you
Singing to you
Singing to you
