Bay Ledges

Gone away
Gone away
Yeah, you've gone away
I'm drowning, I'm drowning
Gone away
Yeah, you've gone away
I'm drowning, I'm drowning

Gone away
Without it, without it
I'm drowning
I'm drowning
Gone away
Without it, without it

I'm drowning
Without it
I'm drowning

Silently nervous
I wanna hide in the curtains
Look in the mirror
You're worth it
Look in the mirror
You're hurting
Ain't had a love like this before
You better love yourself some more
I get down
Digging for purpose
I'm only scratching the surface
I hope I'm leaving with some meaning
At the end of the service
I wonder when I'll be comfortable
In my skin
I wonder if you know a better way
I'm trying to swim
Feels like drowning
Feels like drowning
