

Right Thing

Bay Ledges

Another Saturday, lifting up your own condition
I wanna see if it can wait for another time
Oh lord, restore some kind of centripetal motion
I often wonder if you'll ever feel again

Any day now
I can see now

I set the scene but couldn't find a way to slow the rain down
(Slow the rain down)
And you love to try, I'd beg your pardon
If it wasn't this obvious

Any day now
I can see now
Something keeps me trivializing

Any day now
Can't tell if I'm doing the right thing

I can see now
Can't tell if I'm doing the right thing
Can't tell if I'm doing the right thing
Can't tell if I'm doing the right thing

Any day now
I can see now
Any day
I can see
Any day
