

1 Chance

BAYNK

One chance to take it all back
Be forgiven, I'll give you, give you
One chance to take it all back
Be forgiven, be, be forgiven
And it starts now in your arms
Take me far away
Life can be cruel, I say this to say
I need you now

Matter what you, matter what you done
'Cause you'll always be my baby, need you now
Matter what you, no matter what you done
'Cause you'll always be my baby, need you now
Matter what you, matter what you done
'Cause you'll always be my baby, need you now
Matter what you, no matter what you done
'Cause you'll always be my baby, need you now

Mmh-hm, you're gonna blow it
Playing with me like this, I don't know if
I could keep up
It's too much, darling, it's too
And mmh, you're gonna blow it
Playing with me like this, I don't know if
I could keep up ('cause you'll always be my baby)
It's too much, darling

And ain't nobody gon' make this better
Better than us ('cause you'll always be my baby)
No, ain't nobody gon' make this better, better than us
And I need you now

Matter what you, matter what you done
'Cause you'll always be my baby, need you now
Matter what you, no matter what you done
'Cause you'll always be my baby, need you now
Matter what you, matter what you done
'Cause you'll always be my baby, need you now
Matter what you, no matter what you done
'Cause you'll always be my baby, and I need you now

Matter what you, matter what you done
'Cause you'll always be my baby, need you now
Matter what you, no matter what you done
'Cause you'll always be my baby, need you now
