BAYNK

Sitting poolside
Wondering if I'll find a girl like you
Or if I'm gonna die
With nobody to hold on to
Sitting poolside
Wondering if I'll find a girl like you
Or if I'm gonna die
With nobody to hold on to

'Cause I'm little bit tired of waiting
Little bit tired of racing round my room
Little bit tired of patience
And I'm so tired that I can't meet you by the

Poolside
By the poolside
By the poolside
By the poolside
Poolside

So tiresome
Waiting for your love to come around
An island, is where the feels like you've become
And I'm up to swim through the sea
If you can't swim with me?
'Cause I know it's a dangerous thing
And it's as dangerous as this could be

I know that I'll be poolside
(By the poolside)
(By the poolside)
(By the poolside)

'Cause I'm little bit tired of waiting
Little bit tired of racing round my room
Little bit tired of patience
And I'm so tired I can't meet you by the

Poolside
By the poolside
By the poolside
