

TESSELLATE

BAYNK

Heavy hit, pavement
Lying down, let it rush to my head
Spilled milk, broken glass
Counted every minute right before you left

Every syllable you ever said
Say it like you mean it till you take it back

Heavy hit, pavement
Lying down, let it rush to my head
Spilled milk, broken glass
Counted every minute right before you left

Every syllable you ever said
Say it like you mean it till you take it back

Tessellate the ceiling
Like you don't have everything at your feet
Fixate, slowly
Filling all the spaces in between
How could you forget about me?
How could you forget about me?

Tessellate the ceiling
Like you don't have everything at your feet
Fixate, slowly
Filling all the spaces in between
How could you forget about me?
How could you forget about me?
How could you forget about me?
How could you forget about me?

How could you forget about me?
How could you forget about me?
