

Go To Hell

Bayside

I guess I'm ok
In a "Falling Down" bat shit sort of way
Mistakes were made
And they'll be made again
I feel no shame
So why am I sad every single day?
What needs to change?
Can I be changed again?

Where do wishes go when they're tossed in a well?
Are they screaming for help?
I think I'm gonna finally go and fish 'em all out
Claim 'em all for myself
What sound do the best laid plans make
When they all go to hell

Hello old friend
You're a sight to see
Do you remember when
We could have been anything at all?
Now looking back
The wasted years were the best we'd ever have
And knowing that
I wouldn't change a thing

Where do wishes go when they're tossed in a well
Are they screaming for help?
I think that I should finally go fish 'em all out
Claim 'em all for myself
What sound do the best laid plans make
When they all go to hell?

I can't, I can't
Be the person you want me to
But believe that
I will do what I came to do
Before I go
I just wanted to tell you that
Waiting just ain't my thing
So fuck it! I'm walking to Queens

Where do wishes go when they're tossed in a well
Are they screaming for help?
I think that I should finally go fish 'em all out
Claim 'em all for myself
What sound do the best laid plans make
When they all go to hell?
