

Aye, aye
Imma just go right in Flow so nice every time that I write
I be striking like lightning
All my patience been running low
And that ice they on getting thin
I do not call these people bro
And I'm not here tryna make no friends
I be cookin' up like I'm a chef
Michelin star, they know I'm the best
I got the beats, the bars, the flows
I had to go separate me from the rest
I got the heat, they callin' me Spo
I'm feeling elite whenever I step
Up to the plate
And I be counting the days
Til I become one of the greats
Dedicate 2024 to Kobe
Imma be ballin' while they in the nosebleed
MVP, I'm getting the trophy
Live in the spur of the moment, Ginobli
Not on my level, they all be below me
I'm too lit, they tryna control me
Good on my own but I don't be lonely
Now they be saying they wanting the old me
Damn
2.0 but I'm numero uno
Circle small like sumo
Travel the world and see new places
But I don't go where you go
Follow the leader, copying me
But they cannot be what I'm on
The best MC they ever gon' see
Been on the grind for too long
They thought I was finished but I'll never stop
Handling business and I've been investing
My pockets extending I'm getting the guap
I'm never jealous, I been getting better
I look in the mirror and see my competitor
Counting up bills like I'm working the register
But I'm not regular, I been a boss
Ballin' like I'm Randy Moss
Never been worried 'bout taking a loss
Now I don't even look at what it costs
I just be swiping the platinum card
I've been on top of my game for 10 years straight
I fell in love with the chase to be at the top
And I'll back for whole 'nother season
Whether they ready or not
