

21 Freestyle

Bazanji

Yeah, yeah
21, 21
You know
Feels like a million years but
I'm finally 21
But I'm actually 20 right now but
When you hear this I'll be 21
So I just do it like this
Yeah, yeah

Sometimes I feel like a villian
I'm revealing my inner feelings
I'm making the killing
With the willing
And I'm doing feelings
I'm drilling into your mind
Feel it go through your spine
Ain't nobody in the world
Living a life like mine
Living like I'm 29
Cause I'm ahead of my time
And they thinking I'm an angel
Like I'm outta Anaheim
Its a crime, when I rhyme
But I been doing time
All the bars in my mind
Got me locked in my prime
Now they tryna break me out
They want me to be free
Yeah, I'm talking 'bout the record labels
Bending over me
Yeah they tryna take my say
But they wanna hear my voice
Yeah they listen to my words
But they won't give me a choice
And I been on the road
But I ain't got the Royce
And I been on the low
But I'm still making noise now
I've been out here spending money on the vision
21 years and I've never seen the competition
