23 Freestyle, Bazanji Back

You know

Yeah, back in the game, you know the kid
I made the beat then I made it a hit
All songs be home runs, no time for slow ones
Everyone waiting on me, everyone looking for me
Sorry I'm late, I been out in the UK, I needed to get away
'Cause I got too much on my mind, I never be satisfied
No matter the money I make, always be dealing with something ne w
Finding out things that I never knew Thought about leaving the dental school, my parents said "Quitt ing was never you"
I know they right, but they don't understand
I know in my mind that I got bigger plans
Yeah, everything working out Numbers been going up
Labels be calling me, said it, I'm blowing up
I know but I still feel like growing up Lost friends but I made some People always gonna' play dumb
Stayed down with the same ones, easy finding out fake ones
Had a girl, but now that's done, friends told me from day one Didn't listen, got caught up, now I'm back to my main love
Back to the music, back to the grind
Know that I gotta' get better with time Know what I want, and I been out my way but I gotta' keep going and follow the signs
And shout out the fans, you made it all happen, you don't under stand
You holding me down, whenever I'm falling away from the plan
You said that my "songs all help you", but really you all help me too
We in this together forever, we keeping it going 'til we gonna' break through
