More life

Yeah

New year same me

I been killing these beats

I been bringin' the heat

I been feelin' more free

People changin' round me

Lotta shit built up

Now I gotta let loose

People lookin' for love

I been lookin' for truth

Hard to find, what's new

Yeah

Time for me to unleash

I'm becoming a beast

Followin' what I do

Can't believe what I see

People actin a fool

Tryna come and play me

I ain't workin' for you

I been movin' alone

Always gotta stay true

Workin' outta my home

Got the game in my hand

Always stick to my plan

I don't have an escape

Do this shit for my fans

Do this shit for my fam

Puttin' the food on they plate

Speaking of family I do a lot for the people who keep me from goin' insane

All of the shit on the internet not what it look to be so I be stayin' away

I put my mom in a foreign

Then I went back to recording

Soon I'll be finally touring

Travel the world I'm exploring

Meeting the people who show love

Feel like I've finally grown up

I've been avoiding the shit

That you people be posting just hoping it blow up

Lately I'm feelin' so restless

Trading my sleep for my goals

And lately I'm acting so reckless

Spending my money on clothes

Buying that Gucci don't make me feel any more better than shopping at Kohl's

But I did it anyway cuz I be seein' it when I be lookin' at posts

I'm movin' away from that lifestyle

Less fake, more real smiles

People sayin' they love me

But got my number and won't dial

When I be goin' through hard times

I should've known you were that type

Now I'm ignoring my timeline

Blocking out all of the bad vibes

I been focused on good things

Winning team need more rings
Stay down for my real ones
Noticing what the world brings 24 years old
8 years on my road
Don't matter how many more
I know this the life that I chose
