

Back And Forth

Bazanji

Yeah

No, I don't want you, know that I need you
Making assumptions, I'm keeping it peaceful
Thought that I knew you but that ain't the real you
I been tryna leave but you know that I be Pulling up, pulling up, whipping the foreign
We go till the morning and then we be arguing, yeah
Said you don't love me, you told me don't worry
But I been watching you and all we do is argue

Back and forth, back and forth
Now you walking out the door, out the door
You don't wanna stay no more, stay no more
Guess that I'll be moving on, moving on
'Cause we going back and forth, back and forth
Now you walking out the door, out the door
You don't wanna stay no more, stay no more
Guess that I'll be moving on, moving on

Never thought I'd be deleting your name
Every time I'm seeing you, it's never feeling the same
Yeah, we said that we were gonna try to be friends again
That don't work when you got history, man that is a shame
'Cause you know that I been making moves, I'm chilling out in H ollywood
I'm gonna make it big and do the shit you never thought I would Oh yeah, see me on a billboard in your city
And you tell your friends you used to hook up with me but you k now that we be

Back and forth, back and forth
Now you walking out the door, out the door
You don't wanna stay no more, stay no more
Guess that I'll be moving on, moving on
'Cause we going back and forth, back and forth
Now you walking out the door, out the door
You don't wanna stay no more, stay no more
Guess that I'll be moving on, moving on
