

Get It Now

Bazanji

Imma get it now though
Imma get it now though
I'm not slowing down though
Coming for that crown though

Imma get it now though
Imma get it now though
I'm not slowing down though
Coming for that crown though

Been a minute but I'm in now
Killin' everybody when they wanna bring me down
And I got it cause
I'm all alone in the studio
I don't need nobody tryna play a role
No turnaround time when I make my shit
Everything I do I underrate my shit
Better know the game can't date my shit
Like 20 more years they gon' play my shit
God damn
Movin' with a plan
Started out and nobody would ever understand
Till they heard about the money that was comin' in Shoutout to the people who been showin' all they friends
You know I been locked in, never stopping
All the droppin', not floppin'
They been rockin' with the rap king
All the fans got my back never lackin'
In my free time I reply never slackin'
Aye
Told myself I'd find a way
2013 they would laugh everyday
Nobody ever showed love in my way
I was excited from 200 plays
Now I've been thankful for all of the hate
Gave me more reason to get here today
All of the anger got put into work and I'm keepin' it goin' cause

Imma get it now though
Imma get it now though
I'm not slowing down though
Coming for that crown though

Imma get it now though
Imma get it now though
I'm not slowing down though
Coming for that crown though

I got people who been lookin' up to me I can't ever go and let em down though

Only 21 yeah I'm very young I'm still tryna figure out my route though
I been fallin' back on some bad habits gettin' distracted by the wrong things

Tryna balance out this music life with a social life, it ain't what it seems
But I can't complain cause I asked for this
Always thinking bout the long run
Gettin' drunk and chasing love is fun but it don't feel the same in morning

I feel like God been testing me
Tryna see how I handle all the road blocks
It's easy losing everything u got
I've been praying that the love just don't stop
I been workin' and workin' and workin'
I know that there's nothing for certain
But I want it all
Got love for people who clicked on my music
And gave it a chance without blowing it off
Nothin' is takin' for granted the clock is just ticking and ticking there's no time to waste
Think bout the future like everyday and I'm one step away so

Imma get it now though
Imma get it now though
I'm not slowing down though
Coming for that crown though

Imma get it now though
Imma get it now though
I'm not slowing down though
Coming for that crown though
