

Goin' Down

Bazanji

And you told me that you know that I'll be famous
But that means that I'll be goin' through some changes
And I told you everything is gon' be alright
But you've been actin' different
And it feels like we've been
Goin', goin', goin' down
Goin', goin', goin' down
Goin', goin', goin' down
Yeah you've been actin' different
And I've got a feeling we've been
Goin', goin', goin' down
Goin', goin', goin' down
Goin', goin', goin' down

I remember when I saw you for the first time
We were doin' things I used to think about in my mind
And I know it's my time
But that neva changed me
Every time we hung out I was seein' life in HD
Now we at a crossroads
Comin' to an end
But as this life goes on I try to slow it in my head
And the good times pass but the bad times settle
And every now and then
I've been feelin' sentimental but I know
When I do what I do Imma do it alright
I'm comin' to get it
I do what I like
I'm young and been livin'
And neva been thinkin' bout what I been doin'
And that what I might
I know I told you things that didn't really show the best of me
But I've been gettin' older
And I'm doin' whats been best for me
So hold up when u come back
Tellin' me what's wrong with that
The time is up and I've made plans
I'm movin' on gotta make bands
If only life was simple everything would last forever
And I know it's been a while but Imma need to get my sweater whats-up

And you told me that you know that I'll be famous
But that means that I'll be goin' through some changes
And I told you everything is gon' be alright
But you've been actin' different
And it feels like we've been
Goin', goin', goin' down
Goin', goin', goin' down
Goin', goin', goin' down
Yeah you've been actin' different
And I've got a feeling we've been
Goin', goin', goin' down
Goin', goin', goin' down
Goin', goin', goin' down

My mom told me to cut you off, but I never listened
My friends told me they want me back

Cause I'm never with them, no
And we don't talk about priorities
My only free time is when you chill with your sorority
That's bullshit
Every time we fight somehow you always win
You always assume you're right, with whatever it is Sick of you bitching 'bout the pettiest shit
I've been listening for too long and now
I'm ready to split
When I found that freedom beside my friends
I straight packed up from that jump
I just want to be home with my whole fam
This relationship is so done
I found these new girls in a new city
All blessing me out the on the road
Think of the memories made with people I've met
I can reminisce when I'm old It's all good
Fame is hurtful when it happens quick
Friends and family turn their backs it's some saddening shit
I'm all organic I've been at this for years
And if I had the chance to plan it you would've never been here
And that's real

And you told me that you know that I'll be famous
But that means that I'll be goin' through some changes
And I told you everything is gon' be alright
But you've been actin' different
And it feels like we've been
Goin', goin', goin' down
Goin', goin', goin' down
Goin', goin', goin' down
Yeah you've been actin' different
And I've got a feeling we've been
Goin', goin', goin' down
Goin', goin', goin' down
Goin', goin', goin' down
