

King

Bazanji

I am the king
I am here for war
You will not betray me
You will follow me lead
Ready now

I am the king
Give me the throne
I need a queen
She better than most
I need a palace
I need a horse
If you want gold
Then I am the source
I need a crown
I need a sword
I got my team
We going to war
You are my kids
You be my pawns
We don't relate
You taking a loss
I am the king
Give me the throne
I need a queen
She better than most
I need a palace
I need a horse
If you want gold
Then I am the source
I need a crown
I need a sword
I got my team
We going to war
You are my kids
You be my pawns
We don't relate
You taking a loss

I am the king

Never gon get me out of my zone
Everyone always calling my phone
Sending a song they want me on
I be saying no

Run up in the game
Never lose control

And my life's complex like Akademiks
I'm a paramedic when I write a lyric
Cuz I'm always checking for the beat

Nothing worth having is free
That's what mama telling me
Never been scared of defeat

I'm always ahead of the rest and now I am the king

I need a palace
I need a horse
If you want gold
Then I am the source
I need a crown

Lotta people try do it but they never notice that they not cut out for this
I'm reading my inspiration and I'm keeping patient like I came from the Alch emist
A lot of your favorite rappers really popping cuz they went out and found an ass to kiss
I move alone cuz I'm the opposite
To make it gotta be an optimist
I know
Never be thinking bout what they be thinking bout me
I don't be reading the comments when they talking shit and I feel like I'm f inally free
I don't got time
For going online

And seeing what everyone see
I'm focused on me
That's how I feel
If you got a problem then call Doctor Phil
We keeping it real
I'm never gon chill
I cannot switch
Shooting my shot I know I cannot miss
Don't really care bout your life cuz I heard that the ignorance bliss
And you not part of my clique
Don't make me tell what your day really is Cuz really it's none of my biz
I just been living my life and I'm doing it right and I'm sorry I ran outta fucks to give

I am the king
Give me the throne
I need a queen
She better than most
I need a palace
I need a horse
If you want gold
Then I am the source
I need a crown
I need a sword
I got my team
We going to war
You are my kids
You be my pawns
We don't relate
You taking a loss
