

Let 'Em Know

Bazanji

Let 'em know
That I did it, I ain't ever need nobody
Let 'em know
That the money coming, never changing nothing
Let 'em know
I ain't worried if they ever saying something
Let 'em know
That I'm coming and you know I'm ready for it

Ok I'm back again and I'm ready for it
I'm boutta blow like any moment
Had to go hit another level
I'm ready now for a new opponent
They gon' be comparing me
But they can't compete, I'm a lone soldier
Wake up and do what I want
They wake up, do what their boss told 'em
I can't be living that life
Nobody giving advice
I worked too hard to let somebody come take a part of my rights
I know I had a dream since 14
Been a lotta days with no sleep
I want it now and I'm ready for it
Got hella songs, need many more and I

Let 'em know
That I did it, I ain't ever need nobody
Let 'em know
That the money coming, never changing nothing
Let 'em know
I ain't worried if they ever saying something
Let 'em know
That I'm coming and you know I'm ready for it
Let 'em know
People tryna play me, you can't ever fool me
Let 'em know
Everybody acting like they really knew me
Let 'em know
Everything I'm living looking like a movie
Let 'em know
That I got it, ain't nobody give it to me

Ok, I got it all and I been the man
But that's not enough, I got bigger plans
I gotta be the best to ever to do it
I can't stop till I win the Grams
I don't wanna be second place
No runner up, not how I'm raised
I do this shit til I win it all
Then I'm satisfied and I'm moving on
Now Baz coming, it's problematic
They falling off and it's looking tragic
Write, record, and I mix it too
So every song I score a hat trick
I don't care about no haters
I feel good, yeah I feel amazing
I'm looking back on how far I came

And it's safe to say that I finally made it

Let 'em know
That I did it, I ain't ever need nobody
Let 'em know
That the money coming, never changing nothing
Let 'em know
I ain't worried if they ever saying something
Let 'em know
That I'm coming and you know I'm ready for it
Let 'em know
People tryna play me, you can't ever fool me
Let 'em know
Everybody acting like they really knew me
Let 'em know
Everything I'm living looking like a movie
Let 'em know
That I got it, ain't nobody give it to me
