

Lullabies

Bazanji

These the lullabies that take me far away
I'm not seeking any other place to stay
These the lullabies that take me far away
I'm not seeking any other place to stay

These the lullabies that take me far away
I'm not seeking any other place to stay
These the lullabies that take me far away
I'm not seeking any other place to stay

Whole lot of thoughts inside my head
Too much weight all on my chest
Been getting hard to breathe
I ain't got a chance to rest
I just wish I could unplug
Back to the way how it all was
No one bothering me
Nowadays they all want something from me
Ain't no hi, ain't no hello
When I go pick up my phone
I'm just hearing 'bout what they all need
And I can't take it no more
They don't care about what I'm going through
Got a poker face when I'm in the room
I'm the one they looking up to
I stay strong what else can I do

These the lullabies that take me far away
I'm not seeking any other place to stay
These the lullabies that take me far away
I'm not seeking any other place to stay

These the lullabies that take me far away
I'm not seeking any other place to stay
These the lullabies that take me far away
I'm not seeking any other place to stay

I run away from all my problems
I never stop and try to solve them
I've got a fear of dying young
With everything that's been going on and
I can't watch the news
All hell breaking loose
Every time it's something new
Just stay inside and that's all I do
Too much pain that I can't let go
My mistakes that I keep enclosed
Always thinking 'bout what I could've done
And the lifestyle that I should've chose
But I'm here
I've got to fight my fears
Can't keep living like this
I know better days gon' be coming soon
I'mma stay strong 'til it disappears

These the lullabies that take me far away
I'm not seeking any other place to stay

These the lullabies that take me far away
I'm not seeking any other place to stay

These the lullabies that take me far away
I'm not seeking any other place to stay
These the lullabies that take me far away
I'm not seeking any other place to stay
