Aye, run it up
Made a lot but that's not enough
Got the labels all callin' us
Talk to me, but I'm hangin' up
'Cause I got my friends and I'm proud of us
Never do it for the cameras
Song a week, and I stamina
Keep it going, I'm an animal
I unleash when they let me loose
I been ready since like o'two
Gettin' my bread now, how 'bout you?
Hunnad percent, that's how I do
So now please don't talk about me
Sold out shows is all I see
Yeah, they said no, I ain't team
So I gotta be MVP
Come on

We done came here to party tonight
Celebrate for the rest of our lives
All the games, we gon' leave 'em aside

Aye, never gettin' too cozy
'Cause they all comin' for me
Used to sleep on the roll-away, now the whole team got the Rollies
Roll deep in the sub-urban
Backseat is she workin'
This the life that I dreamed about when I couldn't pay the room service
Now it's electric curtains
But I still just scratch the surface
I'ma get right back to workin'
'Till I get miles [?] workin'
'Till I get my paps the new Benz
'Till I get my bro a few amps
'Till I got the whole family never gotta go to work again

We done came here to party tonight
Celebrate for the rest of our lives

All the games, we gon' leave 'em aside
You know men lie, women lie, but the money multiply
