

No Competition

Bazanji

Yeah

I'm only focused on winning
I don't see no competition
I used to dream now I live it
I'm getting paid by the minute
Still think about the beginning
Made it this far, like one in a million
Not at my peak, I don't have a ceiling
All that I do, I keep it the realest

Been independent I don't need a deal
Already counted up multiple mil
Out in Miami I'm living the dream
I wouldn't trade it for anything else
Wake up and do what I choose
I pray to God that I never lose
They watching close to follow my moves
Flow so cold need a Canada goose
Can't a walk a mile in my shoes
Came from the bottom now I got the views
Hate it or love it, it don't even matter
I don't read no comments got nothing to prove
Still underrated, but never been underpaid
Don't want to be famous, top of the playlist
All of them sound outdated
There ain't no debating
Who the greatest
I been on my way, might go super saiyan
I don't play games like PlayStation
I'm better than most like MJ
And I'll never be changing
This isn't random
Went through the toughest of battles and I'm still standing
Now I'm expanding
I'm getting bigger and bigger, I need two accountants
I don't take any advice from people who not in control of their life
I'm feeling like a thief in the night
I take what I'm owed and get what I'm demanding
Still got the same ones around me
From back then and they still riding
We had the vision but we not dividing
Always be moving in silence
In the Bellagio counting up bands
Bet on myself I gave it a chance
Now we be celebrating on a vacation on a tropical island

I'm only focused on winning
I don't see no competition
I used to dream now I live it
I'm getting paid by the minute
Still think about the beginning
Made it this far, like one in a million
Not at my peak, I don't have a ceiling
All that I do, I keep it the realest
