

Red Flag

Bazanji

They be counting up my pockets that's a red flag
People sell their soul for money don't respect that
They be flexin' in the comments I don't get that
Maybe that's a red flag
Maybe that's a red flag

I just took a flight to London I been jet lagged
If I ever said it then you know I meant that
They be drinking that Dasani that's a red flag
Maybe that's a red flag
Maybe that's a red flag

Leave it on read
Think about me
Tryna be bigger than HOV
Doubting me now but they gon see
I don't got time for SOB's
The more I do, the more I'm free
And all that I got is all I need
Put in the time and I finally made it
I'm late on my wishes like happy belated
I'm going again
Nobody coming and blocking my wins
Out in Miami surrounded by 10's
But I like the 100's more than I like them
I got problem

She want my heart but I want the dollars
I'm good at solving

I cut 'em off and I be evolving, yeah
I do not pay 'em no mind
Cuz I been busy getting mine
All I can see are the red flags
I won't let 'em be my demise

They be counting up my pockets that's a red flag
People sell their soul for money don't respect that
They be flexin' in the comments I don't get that
Maybe that's a red flag
Maybe that's a red flag

I just took a flight to London I been jet lagged
If I ever said it then you know I meant that
They be drinking that Dasani that's a red flag
Maybe that's a red flag
Maybe that's a red flag

Aye
Just watch me
I win in the ring like Rocky
No red light, green light stop me
I'm winning the game like 456
And Baz don't miss that's obvi
Yeah I'm still independent
I'm letting 'em know I don't give a percentage
And no I could never be managed

They used to pray on my downfall
Now they be tryna get hands on
I don't get to idols to stand on
They don't be doing what I've done
Everything different
The money, the women, the life I been living
I never could miss it
The time that I started when I had the vision
Lotta snakes in the grass now
Lotta people want a handout
That could never be me
Worked for everything that you see, yeah

They be counting up my pockets that's a red flag
People sell their soul for money don't respect that
They be flexin' in the comments I don't get that
Maybe that's a red flag
Maybe that's a red flag

I just took a flight to London I been jet lagged
If I ever said it then you know I meant that
They be drinking that Dasani that's a red flag
Maybe that's a red flag
Maybe that's a red flag
