

Stronger

Bazanji

When the sun don't shine and the pain feel more than ever
When you get knocked down and you can't get it back together
You know I'ma get back up, I'ma keep on fighting on
'Cause I know that I'll be stronger when it's done

Ay, yeah, I seen a lotta highs but I been through the lows
Yeah, it made me who I am, I continue to grow
Never said that I was perfect but we don't really show
The shit that we be going through on social media posts
I never let it get to me, I gotta stay down
Keep my people next to me, the ones who been knew me back
When I had nothing, I can never forget
Just a dollar and a dream, Cole giving me that
When I wake up I don't feel I got the fire inside
But I gotta keep it going one day at a time
Yeah, the grass always greener but I'm watering mine
I know life goes on when the sun don't shine

When the sun don't shine and the pain feel more than ever
When you get knocked down and you can't get it back together
You know I'ma get back up, I'ma keep on fighting on
'Cause I know that I'll be stronger when it's done

Yeah, yeah
Now, tell me why the devil be so inviting
'Cause all the bad things feel so enticing
I shoulda known better but I got it right now
I won't ever let nobody try to turn my life down
'Cause I came too far, I been at it since a youngun
When I didn't worry 'bout the cameras always running
Now, I been feeling paranoid, everybody watching
Tryna be myself but they got me staying locked in
I been feeling the pressure, it started building up
Like everything is good but it's never good enough
And lately it's been getting harder knowing who to trust
But I gotta stay strong, never giving up

When the sun don't shine and the pain feel more than ever
When you get knocked down and you can't get it back together
You know I'ma get back up, I'ma keep on fighting on
'Cause I know that I'll be stronger when it's done
