

The Runway

Bazanji

I put the team on my back
I'll do it all for the family
Everyone think they could rap
Nobody ever gon' challenge me
Starting my week on a Sunday
They think they could make it a one day
I've just been ready to take off
Waiting my turn on The Runway

Never be turning around, Never be turning around, ayy
Never be slowing it down, Never be slowing it down, ayy
I keep my foot on the gas, I keep my foot on the gas, ayy
I know I'm never gon' crash, I know I'm never gon' crash, ayy
Never be turning around, Never be turning around, ayy
Never be slowing it down, Never be slowing it down, ayy
I keep my foot on the gas, I keep my foot on the gas, ayy
I know I'm never gon' crash, I know I'm never gon' crash, ayy

E-e-e-everyone making excuses
I've been busy making music
They just wanna see me fall off
Know that I'm never gon' lose it
Got addicted to the chase now
People saying that I changed now
Know that I'm never gon' stand still
I'm treating the game like a race now
They really been carefully watching me
They treating me like I was calories
But really they can't get enough of me
They treating me like I'm a salary
They bringing me up in discussion
They wondering how do I do it so casually
I celebrate all of my victories
All of a sudden they all gon' be mad at me
Damn, I don't have time for concern
I just go live and I learn
Trust me I've waited my turn
Living my dream in return
This isn't given, it's earned
People been listening over the world
I be making that money while I be asleep
I never ran to the money
But now all the money been too busy running to me

I put the team on my back
I'll do it all for the family
Everyone think they could rap
Nobody ever gon' challenge me
Starting my week on a Sunday
They think they could make it a one day
I've just been ready to take off
Waiting my turn on The Runway

Never be turning around, Never be turning around, ayy
Never be slowing it down, Never be slowing it down, ayy
I keep my foot on the gas, I keep my foot on the gas, ayy
I know I'm never gon' crash, I know I'm never gon' crash, ayy

Never be turning around, Never be turning around, ayy
Never be slowing it down, Never be slowing it down, ayy
I keep my foot on the gas, I keep my foot on the gas, ayy
I know I'm never gon' crash, I know I'm never gon' crash, ayy

I-I-I'm not doing this for the money
So don't misinterpret my last line
The weather ain't always been sunny
But I know that I'm gonna still shine
You never gon' make it 'til you got the power
To go and develop a strong mind
'Cause everything happens when you don't expect it
The journey ain't given a deadline
I'm going 'til I got a flat line
Connecting with people like landline
I been blowing up like a landmine
I blew myself on like a combine
Knowin' the way that they go
And I'm ready for more, I don't wait on the sideline
I'm feeling like 2011
When Drizzy was dropping them hits like it's headlines
I don't understand what I can't do
If I cut you off then I had too
I'm staying up late like it's fast food
The life of a rapper who in school
I don't want to hear all the people
Who been tryna give me advice
If you haven't done it before then don't give your opinion
'Bout what you think I should go do with my life, ayy

I put the team on my back
I'll do it all for the family
Everyone think they could rap
Nobody ever gon' challenge me
Starting my week on a Sunday
They think they could make it a one day
I've just been ready to take off
Waiting my turn on The Runway

Never be turning around, Never be turning around, ayy
Never be slowing it down, Never be slowing it down, ayy
I keep my foot on the gas, I keep my foot on the gas, ayy
I know I'm never gon' crash, I know I'm never gon' crash, ayy
Never be turning around, Never be turning around, ayy
Never be slowing it down, Never be slowing it down, ayy
I keep my foot on the gas, I keep my foot on the gas, ayy
I know I'm never gon' crash, I know I'm never gon' crash, ayy
(Crash, ayy, crash, ayy, crash, ayy)
