

Trophies

Bazanji

Aye, yeah
I been the man
I've done it all, it's a good life
Back and forth all around the world
I lie flat in my red eye
Did everything I said would, I can't lie
Too nice, I'm looking up
Can't see my peak, it's too high
Trying to catch me, goodbye
I'm gone
Next level what I'm on
Get whatever that I want
I'm too fire like pyro
Used to hate it back then
Now they acting like they know me
Told 'em bring the champagne
The whole team getting trophies

Whole team been ballin' out
I keep it real, never let 'em down
Teaching everyone how to swim
When the storm comes, nobody drown
I be rolling with winners only
I'm at the top and it's never lonely
Santorini my second home
Versace robes, I'm getting cozy
All my life I've been wanting more
But you only getting what you work for
Put in my ten thousand hours
I keep on winning I'm losing score
Used to dream of the better days
They finally came and I live it up
I won't ever stop working now
'Cuz I can't go back to where I was

I been the man
I've done it all, it's a good life
Back and forth all around the world
I lie flat in my red eye
Did everything I said would, I can't lie
Too nice, I'm looking up
Can't see my peak, it's too high
Trying to catch me, goodbye
I'm gone
Next level what I'm on
Get whatever that I want
I'm too fire like pyro
Used to hate it back then
Now they acting like they know me
Told 'em bring the champagne
The whole team getting trophies

They be saying I'm underrated
I told 'em all that I'll be the greatest
Only focused on elevating
I'm here to stay even if they hate it
They won't ever get in my way

No back and forth, that's child's play
I compete with myself now
Reaching new goals every other day
Looking back on my journey
I took the road less traveled
I broke through every obstacle
Like I'm Francis Ngannou
I never changed who I started with
'Cuz everybody been a part of it
I'm the captain of the mothership
Like Titanic but I'll never sink

I been the man
I've done it all, it's a good life
Back and forth all around the world
I lie flat in my red eye
Did everything I said would, I can't lie
Too nice, I'm looking up
Can't see my peak, it's too high
Trying to catch me, goodbye
I'm gone
Next level what I'm on
Get whatever that I want
I'm too fire like pyro
Used to hate it back then
Now they acting like they know me
Told 'em bring the champagne
The whole team getting trophies
