Understand

Bazanji

People gonna keep on talking bout me, but they don't understand
The work that I do when they're not around me, they don't understand
The life I chose
The nights alone
The highs and lows
They keep on talking bout me, but they don't understand

What it feels like
Everything that's wrong always endin' up to feel right
I know I've been gone but my dreams becomin' real life
The closer that I get I feel like it's not even in sight
Shows around the nation but it started with a missed flight
Wonder if these signs are sayin' I'm not made for this life
Everyone been puttin' on this image like they blessed now
But really they've been thinking that they'll lose it all and wake up feeling stressed out
Now everybody spendin weekends gettin drunk at clubs
I'm busy workin while they finding temporary love
I made the sacrifices prayin' that it's worth it
But I know it's gonna work and Imma get what I deserve until I'm gone

People gonna keep on talking bout me, but they don't understand
The work that I do when they're not around me, they don't understand
The life I chose
The nights alone
The highs and lows
They keep on talking bout me, but they don't understand

I'm doin' everything I wanted when I started off
And now I realize that this ain't what I thought it was
And Everything is amazing until u got it
Like that girl u really wanted but then you wanna just cut her off
I gotta problem with finally being satisfied
Everything I got I just wanna see it be multiplied
But everyday I think about the shit I take for granted
Too many people want my spot they tryna make me panic
Nobody comin' close to where I really wanna be
I'm busy workin' day and night, I'll never stop like Gary Vee
I'm comin' for that MVP, aiming for that hall of fame
I don't mind if you don't like me everyone gon know my name

People gonna keep on talking bout me, but they don't understand
The work that I do when they're not around me, they don't understand
The life I chose
The nights alone
The highs and lows
They keep on talking bout me, but they don't understand
