

Welcome

Bazanji

I only miss you when the sun goes down
Oh, your voice is my favorite sound
Swaying like the palm trees
You and me, we're poetry
Painting stories with our lips

Lately I've been workin' on another level ('nother level)
Gonna get it all, no, I'll never settle (never settle)
I've been pressin' down on the pedal
Got the crown on my temple
I've been winnin' in a battle with the devil
Lately I've been workin' nightly 'til the sun up
This is really what you call the greatest come up (greatest come up)
I've been reaching millions
I've been chasing billions
I've been murderin' the game while only usin' brilliance
Now everybody takin' cover 'cause I'm shooting for the masses
Killin' the game and I'm doin the same in the classes
No one could ever go match this
No one could ever go past this
Wakin' up into the night
I've been thinkin' 'bout life and I end up as average
Knowin' I've been takin' chances
Workin' and workin' while they've been all talkin'
I'm comin' to get it the fastest
Now whats up?
The fans, yeah, they show up
Now everybody watchin'
Tellin' me that I'm 'bout to blow up
But nobody from where you're from
Would think you'd ever make it
'Cause they hate to see somebody
Doin' better than what they've been
And they say it's human nature
But the nature of the faker
Filled with jealousy and anger
While I put in major labor
I've been tryna chase the paper
And I had the fear of failure
But the greater comes with danger
And I'm made to stay and face it
I'm knowin' the way that it go and I'm ready to battle
I've never been fragile
I know they've been wonderin' how it all happened
They thinkin' I'm magic
Yeah I know it's crazy, but I'll never settle
When they comin' for my neck and they're all tryna see me fail
Now welcome
