

Staying Up Late

Bazzi

I've been staying up late
With some friends that I think I might hate
And these drugs, yeah, they make me feel great
But tomorrow, you know I'm gonna pay, yeah
Drink 'til the end of my stay
'Cause I don't wanna be in this place
I've been staying up late (up late, up late)
I've been staying up late, oh

Mm-ba-ba, ha-, let go
It's hard to love you
It's hard to let go
Mm-ba-ba, ha-, let go
It's hard to love you

But I can't figure out
How I'm up then I'm down
Be breathing for air
Can you just help me out?
Late nights and I'm up alone
I've been stumblin' through these parties
Barely holdin' on
Ain't no reason I should be here
Take me home, take me home

I've been staying up late
With some friends that I think I might hate
And these drugs, yeah, they make me feel great
But tomorrow, you know I'm gonna pay, yeah
Drink 'til the end of my stay
'Cause I don't wanna be in this place
I've been staying up late (up late, up late)
I've been staying up late, oh

Mm-ba-ba, ha-, let go
It's hard to love you
It's hard to let go
Mm-ba-ba, ha-, let go
It's hard to love you
It's hard to let go

Feet don't fail me now
No, I'm too high above the ground
But I'll come down
Hope you'll be there to catch me
Feet don't fail me now
No, I'm too high above the ground
But I'll come down
I hope you'll be there to catch me, ooh

You'll be there, you'll be there
You'll be there, be there to catch me
You'll be there, you'll be there
You'll be there, be there to catch me
