

man in the mirror

bbno$

Wait a minute, wait a minute
You ain't heard nothing yet
Lentra the god

I see a man in the mirror that I'm proud of
In way too deep, on my mama, I need power
Baby's on the streak, I make hits like every hour
If you want some beef, yeah, baby ain't a coward
You better stand clear, only alive for some dead presidents
I'm the man in the mirror
I'm here for long, I claimed my residence
I'm the man in the mirror
My numbers growing, ain't it evident?
I'm the man in the mirror
I'm finally glad I set some precedence
I'm the man in the mirror

Please chill out, baby got all the labels like tweaking, now
Yeah, I just set a standard they all have to allow, yeah
I'm sure I got some years left, watch me keep to my sound
I'm gon' deem myself the man of the year
Y'all shoulda never showed this music to some dorks, yeah
'Cause we switch it up and now we on the Forbes
Baby always makin' gas, he found the sauce
Come and find me floorin' ninety in a
Foreign whip, with the roof that's disappearing
Yes, I'm reflecting
Can't take things for granted while I'm steering
Yes, I'm reflecting

I see a man in the mirror that I'm proud of
In way too deep, on my mama, I need power
Baby's on the streak, I make hits like every hour
If you want some beef, yeah, baby ain't a coward
You better stand clear, only alive for some dead presidents
I'm the man in the mirror
I'm here for long, I claimed my residence
I'm the man in the mirror
My numbers growing, ain't it evident?
I'm the man in the mirror
I'm finally glad I set some precedence
I'm the man in the mirror

I'm the man in the mirror
I'm the man in the mirror
I'm the man in the mirror
I'm the man in the mirror
