

How Chandeliers Are Made

BBY KODIE

Yea

Woah

Uh

Treat it like it's 2018 again

And imma show y'all boys what it means to win

A millionaire bracket what I'm leaning in

And I ain't looking back till my season end

So this is for the sideline junkies with the most to say

Y'all missed y'all turn so y'all supposed to wait

Y'all missed y'all turn so y'all supposed to hate

What am I supposed to say

And with a hand full of diamonds what am I supposed to make

What you waiting for? What you waiting for?

(Badboy sound this a badboy sound)

What you waiting for? What you waiting for?

(Badboy sound this a badboy sound)

What you waiting for? What you waiting for?

(Badboy sound this a badboy sound)

What you waiting for? What you waiting for?

(Badboy sound this a badboy sound)

So hit me when y'all done playing stunts

And done kicking punts it's the fourth down

Nigga better take a chance for once

Issa ghost town

We ain't heard from y'all in like some months

And the go around is y'all seen us and we ain't seen y'all sense

So I ask ya'll

What y'all waiting for

Them boys is outside

So what you playing for

Y'all ain't even fucking tried

Fuck you need a favor for

I saw my turn and came alive that's what I'm grateful for

So I gotta ask ya'll

What y'all waiting for

Them boys is outside

So what you playing for

Y'all ain't even fucking tried

Fuck you need a favor for

I saw my turn and came alive that's what I'm grateful for

So I got a handful of diamonds

And made this shit in my image

And realized that the game is just a wonderful sentence

And realized that the money you make can only diminish

Your time is quick like decisions

So quickly make a decision

What you waiting for? What you waiting for?

(Badboy sound this a badboy sound)

What you waiting for? What you waiting for?

(Badboy sound this a badboy sound)

What you waiting for?

What you waiting for?

Uh

Treat it like it's 2018 again

And imma show y'all boys what it means to win

A millionaire bracket what I'm leaning in

And I ain't looking back till my season end

So this is for the sideline junkies with the most to say

Y'all missed y'all turn so y'all supposed to wait

Y'all missed y'all turn so y'all supposed to hate

What am I supposed to say

And with a hand full of faith this how a chandeliers made

(Badboy sound this a badboy sound)
