

This Is Forever

BBY KODIE

Yea, child, yea

Prayed for this moment my whole life
Imma' need the flashing lights on tonight
Imma' need the motherfucking throne tonight
And Imma' have to call you when I'm home, aight?
Imma' hit you when the sun go down

Is that okay?

But I don't see my end coming, I'm here to stay
Remember days, working fucking minimum wage
Now the minimum is what the fuck these n*ggas tryna pay
I go seven figures only
Fuck you mean I'm not the one?
You couldn't clone me
Fuck you mean? I take the sun and wear it on me
Fuck you mean? I'll get the set tatted on me
And these n*ggas tryna tell me sum'
N*ggas be so motherfucking cap
N*ggas claiming that they artist, can't even motherfucking rap
N*ggas think they up from where they at
Let yo ass not sell a record, I bet they send yo ass back
N*ggas shouldn't even worry 'bout a plaque
Let alone a fucking Grammy, half yo catalogue is whack
And a n*ggas like me don't even have to act
Heard the competition dropped and I skipped every fucking track
'Cause I prayed for this moment
And if yo spot looking nice then I want it
I need the throne for this motherfucking moment
God shine your light on me and let the boy know he owned

Prayed for this moment my whole life
Imma' need the flashing lights on tonight
Imma' need the motherfucking throne tonight
And Imma' have to call you when I'm home, aight?
Prayed for this moment my whole life
Imma' need the flashing lights on tonight
Imma' need the motherfucking throne tonight
And Imma' have to call you when I'm home, aight?
Imma' hit you when the sun go down
