Yeah, lucky mutha

First he got my name then, my number
Now he got me actin' like an opp

He all on my mind, I'm on his cock
Pull up on my block
Only get to see him when I see him
Rarely when I need him
Hate it, it's too many miles between us
I be itchin', fienin'
Internally screamin' 'til I'm sleepin', geekin' under you
Watch you roll a wood and bend me over like you 'posed to do
I don't ask for much, I wanna touch
I wanna see you smile
Wanna light ya life up
Wanna link up witch a inner child
Wanna make you cum all on my tongue
Until I make you numb
You my little drug, I need a couple hits
I'm sick as fuck, yeah

You know you got what I want
You know you got what I need, yeah
You know you got what I want
You know you got what I need
You know you got what I want
You know you got what I need, yeah
You know you got what I want
You know you got what I need

I can see the future when I'm lickin' on ya crystal balls
I love every inch
Wanna give you every pinch of what I'm workin' wit, yeah
You so special, you so easy to love
You so perfect, you so worth it
Everything I ever wanted, ever needed
Got me feeling so conceited
Got me dreamin' 'bout those long and lazy nights off the tequila
Got me clearin' out my calendar
Really wanna see you, wanna be witchu like Mary J
Blowin' Mary Jay, fuck pain the away
I don't ask for much, I wanna touch you
Wanna see you smile

Wanna link up witcha inner child
Wanna let you cry all on my shoulder
