Throwing back to the days
Just passina through
Money and fame
I got 'em, but they're worth nothing
Underrated? Say what you want, I'm ready
Even in showbiz, I learn on the job

Branded the lowest of the low
A mountain retreat even COVID doesn't know
Gazed across the sea from Mt. Fuji's peak

Through the Domes, across the world, city to city

I've dodged disaster more than once
Watched chances slip through my hands
So what should I grab onto now?
I want that, I want that, I want

Everything you see
I've reached uncharted territory
But I don't know if it's...
(Oh!)
I don't know if it's...

Got the GRIT, got the GRIT
I got the GRIT
Got the GRIT, got the GRIT
(GRIT) I got the GRIT

Amazing, wannabe critics make me sigh
I left the ground long ago on a spaceship riding high
Black hole, my vision could swallow it whole
We're not gonna stop, ain't nobody touch us now

Conventional, mainstream, majority
Time to teach the winners a lesson
Style B, the boys back with another hit
We're the Timberland-wearing heroes, you know?

I've dodged disaster more than once
Watched chances slip through my hands
So what should I grab onto now?
