We are under the same shining

I want someone to say, "It'll be okay"
The parts of me that aren't, I hide away, oh

Those days we smiled bright as the sun
Beyond the clouds what face do they put on?

I wish I knew how to help
So you can stay true to you
So small, it feels like we could disappear
The pain in my chest is so clear
It's okay to cry
When you're one with the sky

Even rainy days
Can bring someone peace
As the tears become a soft release
It's okay to be wrong, we've been unstable all along
Someday, someday, the sun will shine on

A bright blue sky
Is waiting for you (Is waiting)
Beyond the clouds, maybe wondering, too
No sky stays the same, so it's okay
We cry and laugh to make it through the day

"Thank you" are the words you need
But I just bury them in apologies, oh
Carefree clouds look down on me
Let them laugh, I don't care what they see
Even a day as bad as today
Will pass with time and fade away, ay

Before the storm (Hey)
In the typhoon's eye (Hey)
Chaos and calm go hand in hand (Hey)
Even if you're alone in a distant place
Look beyond the stars, and you'll see my face
We are under the same sky

Even rainy days
Can bring someone peace (Every cloud has a silver lining)
As the tears become a soft release
It's okay to be wrong, we've been unstable all along
Someday, someday, the sun will shine on

A bright blue sky
Is waiting for you
Beyond the clouds, maybe wondering, too
No sky stays the same, it's okay
Laughing and crying to make it one more day
You're not alone, just one more step

Even in the rain
Every cloud has a silver lining
Even on sunny days
We are under the same shining (Even on sunny days)
Even in the rain (Waiting for you)
Every cloud has a silver lining (Even in the rain)
Even on sunny days (Woah)
We are under the same shining
