

Burning Bridges

Bea Miller

I've been lonely missing your body
You've been out of touch you're so far away
Wishing you would tell me you're sorry
And you know you made a big mistake

Close my eyes and try to forget you
Every time I do I just see your face
After all that shit that we've been through
Why are so you willing to walk away?

I don't know why I stick around to watch you burn our bridges down
I can't help it that I need you
I can't help it that I need you
Now I'm drowning underneath the water that was under me
I'm still screaming that I need you
I can't help it that I need you

Burn the bridges, burn them down
Down, down, down, down
Burn the bridges, burn them down
Down, down, down, down, down

You left me with a craving I can't fill
Got me wondering what I had yesterday
Tell everyone I'm fine but I'm still Sitting here choking on the aftertaste

Can't stay away from you, I try, I try
But you got a grip on my mind

I don't know why I stick around to watch you burn our bridges down
I can't help it that I need you
I can't help it that I need you
Now I'm drowning underneath the water that was under me
I'm still screaming that I need you
I can't help it that I need you

Burn the bridges, burn them down
Down, down, down, down
Burn the bridges, burn them down
Down, down, down, down, down

Can't stay away from you, I try, I try
But you got a grip on my mind

Now I'm drowning underneath the water that was under me
I'm still screaming that I need you
I can't help it that I need you

Burn the bridges, burn them down
Burn the bridges, burn them down
Burn the bridges, burn them down
Down, down, down, down
Burn the bridges, burn them down
Down, down, down, down, down
