

Ever Seen

beabadoobee

Spent some time waiting for your face
Don't want to risk just making all the same mistakes
The highest I think I've ever been
Said I had the prettiest eyes he'd ever seen

Can't help going through it
Swear it's just the comedown that made me do it
My mind's spent and I show it
Wasting all my time just dwelling in it

'Cause I spent some time waiting for your face
Don't want to risk just making all the same mistakes
The highest I think I've ever been
Said I had the prettiest eyes he'd ever seen

Wound up with a purpose
I've been through this too many times to not notice
It's been rough, but I've felt worse
I'll pull myself back up, and you know this

'Cause I spent some time waiting for your face
Don't want to risk just making all the same mistakes
The highest I think I've ever been
Said I had the prettiest eyes he'd ever seen
He has the prettiest eyes I've ever seen

Every piece of me holds parts of you
Wish I could see that it feels much better when I'm with you
And when I get too high and I can't breathe
I can't lie, he has the prettiest eyes I've ever seen

He has the prettiest eyes I've ever seen
Prettiest eyes I've ever seen
Prettiest eyes I've ever seen
The prettiest eyes I've ever seen
