Said he's getting tired from running as fast as he can
Daddy always said he was half of a man
Life worth living but as hard as it gets
Guess sometimes you learn to forget

And all I wanted the most
Was to see your name on the post

He said
He said

Something about her is hard to regret
Falling slowly
Every time she looks at him, he's breaking a sweat
I think I'm lonely

And all I wanted the most
Was to see her name on the post

She said
She said
She said
She said

I'm not waiting any longer for you
Realising you've nothing to give
Took too long for you to show it

He said
He said

He said
