

All Alone

Beach Boys

If I could live my life again
I'd never do you wrong
You better know, oh

If I just had a chance again
To spend my life with you
You know, it's in my soul, oh

I'd be standin' by your side
Not to ever let you go

If I only had a chance to live a life that we belong
Would I be strong?
If I didn't take the time and never try to understand
Ooh, my love, where it's gone

In the sadness that our love is left behind
I'm standing all alone

If I could stand to love again
Plant another seed
You know, would it grow, oh

If I could share my life again
With all the love I have for you, my love
Would it grow? Where would it go?

Ooh, my love
Now it's gone
In the sadness that I love is left behind
I'm standing all alone

All alone
