

One Kiss Led To Another

Beach Boys

My girlfriend was a-babysittin' down the street
And so I got some soda pop and sandwich meat
I laid it on the table and I took a seat
But we never got a chance to drink or eat

Because a-one kiss led to another (ah-oo)
And another (ah-oo)
And another (ah-oo)
One kiss led to another (ah-oo)
And another (ah-oo)
And another (ah-oo)

Turned on the radio
(I'm gonna sing all week)
Play until the music playing soft and low
Said we better dance before I flip my lid
We both got up to dance but we never did

Because a-one kiss led to another (ah-oo)
And another (ah-oo)
And another (ah-oo)
One kiss led to another (ah-oo)
And another (ah-oo)
And another (ah-oo)
