

What Is A Young Girl Made Of

Beach Boys

What is a young girl made of
Sugar they say and spice
What is a young girl made of
Everything that's nice

That's what you are
What you will always be
Made of my dreams
Close as my heart to me
Bright as a star
Of love's sweet mystery
Here in my arms
Where you should always be

What is a young girl made of
While she is in her teens
What is a young girl made of
Bright shirts and old blue jeans

That's what you are
What you will always be
Made of my dreams
Of love's sweet mystery
Bright as a star
Close as my heart to me
Here in my arms
Where you should always be

What is a young girl made of
Stardust and fresh moonbeams
What is a young girl made of

Mostly a young mans dreams
Mostly a young mans dreams
Mostly a young mans dreams
Mostly a young mans dreams
Mostly a young mans dreams
