Gone

Beach Bunny

If you need to be alone, that's fine, I'll go
If you need me back at home, just let me know
But I'm tired of waiting on a telephone call
Tired of staring at a blank wall

But then I fall into your arms again
After all is this the end? Is this the end?

If you wanna let me in, please tell me so
If you're gonna string things out, just let me go
'Cause I'm tired of guessing on a blurred photo
Are you hanging out with someone I don't know

But then I fall into your arms again
After all this time, is this the end?
Do I fall into your arms again?
After all is this the end? Is this the end?

Do I fall into your arms again?
After all this time, is this the end?
Do I fall into your arms again?
After all is this the end? Is this the end?
