Beach Bunny

When you turn around, my heart, my heart
Seems to fall down, but not falling apart
And all and all the promises I made to myself
Don't help me from wantin'

When I look above, I lose control
You're like a mirror looking into my soul
And all I thought I ever was, wasn't at all
And I can't help how I'm feelin'

The sun is only half as bright as your light
The ocean only half as deep
And all of the time and space may make up a life
But you're the one that makes living so sweet
