

Melt

Beach Weather

I just wanna melt for you, for you, for you
Even when I'm caught in my feelings
I just wanna feel like I'm dreaming
Of sugar and déjà vu
Always acting like a fool for you, for you, for you
Even when I'm caught in my feelings
I just wanna melt

Feeling like a 7/10 at best
Face plant in your basement
Is it all bit obvious?
Too obvious for you, honey

When I breakdown in the foyer
That's my emotional foreplay
Do you still want me?

I just wanna melt for you, for you, for you
Even when I'm caught in my feelings
I just wanna feel like I'm dreaming
Of sugar and déjà vu
Always acting like a fool for you, for you, for you
Even when I'm caught in my feelings
I just wanna melt

All this sunshine and no shade
I want burn away, slow fade
Is it all bit obvious?
Too obvious 'cause I'm swimming in nostalgia with you
Nothing I can do
You know you still haunt me?
Oh, you still want me

I just wanna

I just wanna melt for you, for you, for you
Even when I'm caught in my feelings
I just wanna feel like I'm dreaming
Of sugar and déjà vu
Always acting like a fool for you, for you, for you
Even when I'm caught in my feelings
I just wanna melt
