

I control it when the moment is right, is right
And you are turnin' into something I like, I like
It's the morning after midnight and my hungry
Eyes they got an appetite for you, for you

Baby, you're too precious, you make it
Hard to believe
Love can be so vicious
Can't resist, so show your teeth
Yellow with desire, got me howlin' at the moon
Cause baby I'm the wolf in you
Oh, maybe I'm that wolf in you
And I'm comin' after you
And I'm comin' after you

I can feel it inside my bones
This electric high
And you can't hide it behind your eyes but you're terrified
It's the morning after midnight and my hungry
Eyes they got and appetite for you, for you

Baby, you're too precious, you make it
Hard to believe
Love can be so vicious
Can't resist, so show your teeth
Yellow with desire, got me howlin' at the moon
Cause baby I'm the wolf in you
Oh, maybe I'm that wolf in you
And I'm comin' after you
And I'm comin' after you
And I'm comin' after you
And I'm comin' after you

Is it taking over you?
Cause it's taking over me
And there's nothing I can do, is this the wolf inside of me?
Is it taking over you?
Cause it's taking over me
And there's nothing I can do, cause it's the wolf inside of me

Baby, you're too precious, you make it
Hard to believe
Love can be so vicious
Can't resist, so show your teeth
Yellow with desire, got me howlin' at the moon
Cause baby I'm the wolf in you
Oh, maybe I'm that wolf in you
And I'm comin' after you
And I'm comin' after you
And I'm comin' after you
And I'm comin' after you
And I'm comin' after you
