

I'm not afraid of distance
I'm not afraid of space
The road of least resistance
Isn't always the wisest way

I'm not afraid of leeway
All wings need room to fly
If credence has no free play
Then on who can you rely

Doesn't matter if you wave goodbye
Doesn't matter if you don't reply
Doesn't matter if you come
Doesn't matter if you go
If you walk by my side

Doesn't matter if you're on your way
To enticing places far away
All I ask for is to
Join you on the ride

But distance and indifference
Are not to be confused
I ask for your heart's presence
So that my love inches too and loses

Doesn't matter if you wave goodbye
Doesn't matter if you don't reply
Doesn't matter if you come
Doesn't matter if you go
If you walk by my side

Doesn't matter if you're on your way
To enticing places far away
All I ask for is to
Join you on the ride

I'll give you scope
I'll give you latitude
If there's a hope
That you will include

Me in your future plans
And in your restless heart
Then hold my trembling hands
Before we come apart

Doesn't matter if you wave
Doesn't matter if you don't
Doesn't matter if you come
Doesn't matter if you go
If you walk by my side
Join you on the ride

Doesn't matter if you wave goodbye
Doesn't matter if you don't reply
Doesn't matter if you come

Doesn't matter if you go

Doesn't matter if you're on your way
All I ask for is to
Join you on the ride

I'm not afraid of leeway

I'm not afraid of distance

I'm not afraid of the distance
Oh baby, I'm not afraid of space

Not afraid of leeway
