

Tranquil Flight

Beady Belle

Tell me a tale
And lull me to sleep
I'll walk into the vale
Of wonderland so deep

Let me escape
To gain upon my hope
And let me through the gate
Into the world of thought

Sleep inducing phrases in your lullaby
Tell me I am airborne, to fairyland I fly
Sit at my bedside just one more time
Stroke me down, give me peace of mind
Rock me till I'm leaving reality behind

Sleepy ideas
Is giving me a drive
My soothing fantasies
The reason I survive

Draw the Venetian blinds
And hide what hurts to see
We're running out of time
Defined by you and me
