

12 Years Howled

Bear Ghost

Last night, I took a hell of a chance
I asked a girl to the dance and she said
"Hell yes!" No Jest!
Impressed at my request
I'll have the best dressed guest
Tonight, I'll take that girl to the dance on a night filled with romance and she'll say, "Love me! Kiss Me!" Gleefully, we'll flee through the moonlight city!

Oh baby, you look so sweet!
We gonna dance 'til we got no more feet, yeah!

Let's go! They've provided us punch and various snacks to munch. Let's boogie!
My heart is parched. Let's march far beneath the stars where we'll never have to be apart
You look so good in the glow of the full moonlight

Oh baby, you bring out the beast in me
Oh shit
I'm a werewolf baby, yeah you best be believin'
I'll rip your throat out while everybody's screamin'
Clawin' and maulin' 'til the color of rose flows
I won't remember nothin' once this gory story comes to a close

Last night must have been real intense; I can't recall it's events. Darn, I say
Well, that sucks. I must rush to find the one I lust. I trust I didn't cause a fuss
And then I can't believe what I read. It said all of my friends are dead!
Including her. I stall. I bawl. Although I am appalled, I gotta haul it to the funeral

Why, baby!? You were so sweet! Now all that's left of you is your dancin' feet, yeah!

And as I arrive, since I'm the only survivor, "Mind if I say a few words?"

You looked so good in the glow of the full moonlight
Oh girl, you still bring out the beast in me
OH SHIT!

I'm a werewolf baby, yeah you best be believin'
I'll rip your throat out while everybody's screamin'
Clawin' and maulin' 'til the color of rose flows
I won't remember nothin' once you're dead

How can this be happenin'?
Tearin' everybody dearest to me limb from limb
Want to stop and grieve them, but I just stop to eat them
Please
Won't you please kill me
Whoo!
Whoo!
Whoo!
Whoo!
Whoo! Whoo!?

WAHHH!
