

Hola Adriana

Bear Ghost

I've been riding for days
Picked off a few
To keep them afraid of what lies
Beyond their view
All they could hear
Were boots come in
The sound of death drowned out
The screams of the past

But then you stood
From where they bled
And at that moment I felt so undead

Hola Adriana
Could you take me away?
I need to escape this nefarious trade

She had an elegant connection
Something that enlivens us
Despite the discrepancy of our lives
You would pull and I would shove
I just want you to love
Something greater than me

But battered bullets tend to stray
And death's become my only trade

Hola Adriana
Could you take me away?
I need to escape this nefarious trade
Hola Adriana
Could you take me away?
Hold on while I tread on the edge of my grave
